

WESTERLY

Shortly after he had been given chloroform for an operation on his teeth, John Westerly, 33, of School street, dropped dead Friday morning about 9 o'clock in the dentist's office of Dr. Harold F. Doyle in the Potter-Langworthy building, High street. "Opie" was an ex-service man and was having his teeth looked after at the expense of the government. He was to have 35 teeth extracted Friday morning, and it was deemed advisable to administer chloroform for the operation. The anesthetic was given by Dr. H. M. Scanlon, and before Dr. Doyle could begin work Opie expired. Dr. John L. May and Dr. Harold Kenyon were summoned, and although a pulmotor was used on the patient over half an hour, he could not be revived.

Prior to the administering of the chloroform, Dr. Scanlon made a careful examination of Mr. Opie's heart and found it to be in good condition. The records of the federal board in Boston also showed that Opie's heart was in good condition when he was given a physical examination there last April. The fact that his entire system was weakened as a result of being gassed in the war was the probable cause of his death.

During the world war Opie was a runner in Co. E, 314th Infantry, 79th division, taking part in the entire Argonne campaign, where he was gassed. He also was present at the capture of the Meuse river. The history recently issued by the 79th division Opie is cited for bravery on several occasions. As a result of his being gassed in the service, Opie was receiving compensation, and was to have taken up vocational training in September.

J. Walter Opie was born in Westerly, the son of John and Ida Opie, both of whom survive him. There are no other near relatives.

Another automobile accident was held into court Friday morning by Officer George Matteson for exceeding the speed limit on the Post road Thursday afternoon. The driver of the machine gave the name of Arthur G. Avedisian of 422 Fountain street, Providence, and it was alleged that he was driving at the rate of 40 miles an hour. He pleaded guilty and was fined $40 and costs.

The case of state, Thomas E. Brown, complainant, vs. William J. Henderson, charged with reckless driving, was continued for two weeks by agreement of counsel.

Arrangements have been made to accommodate a crowd of several thousands at the K. of C.-Bradford baseball game here Sunday afternoon. A keen spirit of rivalry exists between the two teams, and the game will be the first in a series of three. Both are anxious to draw first blood, and have strengthened their lineups for this contest.

The roster of both sides follows: Kayses—Kellers, Shea, Dowd, Davidson, Comerford, Porter, Mellow, Crowley, Barker, Rhoades, Moore and Ferraro. Bradford—Kelly, Kill, Arthur, Fiedle, Halbert, Clark, Coleman, Lester, Murphy, Wilcox, Spencer, MacDonald, Bowler and Dolphin.

Luncheon. The completed moving picture films taken of the funeral of Private Gall are expected to arrive in Westerly today (Saturday) and later they will be shown to the American Legion members.

A number of local bowling fans are planning to attend the match game to be played between a Providence team and the pick of Westerly bowlers at Watch Hill (Saturday) afternoon.

The Onlooker in the Stonington Mirror says: If the Rossies are to have returned to them, the property that was seized during war time under the alien property laws, their fellow townsmen will be glad to learn of it. More patriotic and generous residents of Mystic during the war times than the Rossies it would be impossible to find. Of their help at this time, in the furthering of patriotic projects, we still have considerable to learn. They never let pass an opportunity to be of assistance, and appeals to them always met with a generous response. We are glad to have the Rossies with us and hope that they will receive their full rights of residents of this country and patriotic citizens.

LEDYARD

The Congregational Sunday school held its picnic at the drawbridge Thursday. It was an ideal day and there were 56 present. An excellent clam chowder with plenty of other good things was enjoyed. IT'S LIKE STARTING HIS LIFE OVER AGAIN

He Wouldn't Take a Fortune For the Good Tanlac Did Him Declares Lovall.

John R. Lovall, well known lithographer, who resides at 445 Park Ave., Bridgeport, Conn., in relating his experience with Tanlac, a few days ago said: "Tanlac has made me feel so much like a new man that it just seems like I am starting life anew. It is the only thing that ever helped me, and I am anxious to tell others how fine it is. "About eighteen months ago I suffered a nervous breakdown that kept me in bed for two weeks, and I hadn't been feeling like myself since. My stomach got in such an unsettled condition that I gave me all kinds of trouble, and my appetite became so poor I could scarcely eat a thing. Gastritis and nausea caused me no end of worry. I would blast as tight as a drum, and had awful pains in my stomach and across the small of my back. I was so nervous that I couldn't hold a glass of water at times without spilling it, and was so restless at night I could scarcely sleep a wink. "I saw so much about what Tanlac was doing for others that I decided to try it. It was certainly a lucky day for me. I commenced improving from the very start, and five bottles of the medicine have fixed me up in fine shape. The indigestion, gastritis and nervousness have entirely gone. I have a ravenous appetite, eat anything I want, sleep like a baby, never have an ache or pain, and couldn't ask to feel healthier or stronger than I do now. Tanlac has done me."

Tanlac is sold in Norwich by The National Drug Stores Corp.

over the week end. Mr. Case reported killing a rattlesnake the past week in the Marlborough hills. The reptile was four feet long and had nine rattles. This is the second rattler killed in that locality within a short time.
